Alexander and the Magic Mouse (1969), written by Martha Sanders and illustrated by Philippe Fix, is the story of the Old Lady and her very odd animal friends: a Brindle London Squatting Cat, a Magical Mouse, an Alligator from China and a Yak.

Alexander and the Magic Mouse by Martha Sanders

It has all the trappings of a great story - the central characters are animals (alligator, magical mouse, yak, and a cat of exotic origin). It's a tale of heroics against forces of nature. With a bit of sickness thrown in but not in a sentimental way. My father threw this book out when he cleared out the loft and I was devastated.

Alexander and the Wind-Up Mouse by Leo Lionni is a book about how Alexander the mouse made his first friend. Alexander was driven off and disliked by everyone at first. Then he met a wind-up mouse who, unlike him, was the favorite of everyone. He searched for a purple pebble so the magic lizard could turn him into a likable wind-up toy.
