Among the most enlightening books I read was "A Woman Rides the Beast", by Dave Hunt. I left the Catholic Church 50 years ago and never looked back. In my belief, many Catholics are Christians saved by Jesus Christ, but many are not because of the teachings of the Catholic Church.

No one doubts this, not even James White or Christian apologetics groups such as CRI, and no one considers Dave Hunt a Church Father, much less a careful scholar or theologian. Ask James White himself if he would recommend that Roman Catholics read Hunt's A Woman Rides the Beast for an accurate critique of the Catholic faith or Church history. Are you missing half the story about the last days? Virtually all attention these days is focused on the coming Antichrist—but he is only half the story. Many people are amazed to discover in Revelation 17 that there is also another mysterious character at the heart of prophecy—a woman who rides the beast. Who is this woman? Tradition says she is connected with the church of Rome. But isn ' t such a view outdated? After all, today ' s Vatican is eager to join hands with Protestants worldwide. " The Catholic church has changed " is what we hear. Or has it? In A Woman Rides the Beast, prophecy expert Dave Hunt sifts through biblical truth and global events to present a well-defined portrait of the woman and her powerful place in the Antichrist ' s future empire. Eight remarkable clues in Revelation 17 and 18 prove the woman ' s identity beyond any reasonable doubt. A provocative account of what the Bible tells us is to come.

"There shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own [desires]. . . saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." --2 Peter 3:3-4 More than two decades after the original printing of this book, Dave Hunt's insights are clearer than ever. During the 1970s when The Late Great Planet Earth was outselling everything, the Rapture was the hot topic. Pastors preached about heaven, and Christians eagerly anticipated being taken up at any moment to meet their Lord in the air. When Christ didn't return, and the 40 years since the establishment of a new Israel in 1948 expired without the fulfillment of prophesied events, disillusionment began to set in. Today, a growing number of Christians are exchanging the hope of the Rapture for a "new" hope--that Christians can clean up society and elect their own candidates to political office to make this world a "heaven on earth." Bestselling author Dave Hunt probes the question "Whatever happened to heaven?" thoroughly and provides an easily understandable explanation of all the many issues and beliefs. Hunt shows us that heaven is really our home and brings fascinating new clarity to why we lost that hope and how it can be regained.

At last, a book that presents in a concise manner the events leading up to the return of Christ. Dave Hunt, in his characteristic direct style, answers these pervasive questions: Who is the Antichrist? How will he be recognized? What current events indicate that we really are in the last days of the "last days"? Using Scripture and up-to-date information, Dave draws the exciting conclusion that, indeed, time is short. He then outlines a biblical response and reminds the reader of the hope we have in Christ. This book instructs, encourages, warns, and strengthens readers to "walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil" (Ephesians 5:15,16). Table of Contents: 1. The Ultimate Falsehood 2. Peaceful Words, Provocative Deeds 3. Are We There Yet? 4. Measuring What Cannot Be Measured 5. Infinite Mystery, Perpetual Joy 6. The Ultimate Hope Overwhelming evidence indicates that we are eternal beings who will spend eternity somewhere. These compelling proofs show where it will be and how we can know with certainty.

Author and lecturer Dave Hunt exposes what he believes is the subtle seduction of the world and church by a resurgent occultism, a reality which is corroborated by increasing suicide, violence, and immorality throughout society.

Of the many trouble spots in the world today, none rivals Jerusalem for ultimate significance. Zechariah prophesied that in the last days God would make Jerusalem a "cup of trembling" and a "burdensome stone" for the whole world. Today's world has its eyes on Jerusalem, believing that the next world war will break out over this city. Jerusalem is indeed a "cup of trembling" and will continue to be so in spite of false peace initiatives.
