Ontario who survives the residential school system and becomes a talented ice hockey player, only for his past to catch up to him and cast him away from the sport he loves.

~~Indian Horse - Wikipedia~~

A brilliantly written story of a Native American childhood with family which turns into a nightmare when he is 'forcibly' educated and Christianised. His struggles as a man to understand his pain and a yearning for his culture and identity are beautifully woven into his passion for the game of ice hockey.
