Fearless and incorruptible, Andrew Trevayne is a self-made millionaire, former undersecretary of state, and current head of one of the nation's most prestigious foundations. Now, at the express wish of the president, Trevayne undertakes an investigation into the "secret government"—and is soon swept up in a tidal wave of intrigue and danger. Beyond the corridors of official power he discovers a nightmare maze where billionaires mingle with Mafia dons, where sinister forces are poised to enact a chilling conspiracy, where Congress and even the presidency itself can be bought and sold, where survival hinges on a hair trigger. In this world, a man like Trevayne can easily become a pawn, an enemy—or a king. Praise for Robert Ludlum and Trevayne "A taut novel that spares no one."—The New York Times "Brilliant . . . a story of power, intrigue, ambition, greed, corruption, and horror."—King Features Syndicate "Don't ever begin a Ludlum novel if you have work the next day."—Chicago Tribune "A fascinating, meaty spine tingler."—Library Journal BONUS: This edition includes an excerpt from Robert Ludlum's The Bourne Identity.

When an accused murderer disappears from a locked cell on her watch, Corporal Goose Maculloch of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police tracks the vanished girl through the wilderness of Vancouver Island, where bizarre phenomenon accompany her encounters with a desolate child and a grieving mother. 35,000 first printing.

And a boy called Gavin, who thinks only that he is a city kid with parents who hate him, and knows only that he sees things no one else will believe, is boarding a train, alone, to Cornwall.
