Predestination, in Christian theology, is the doctrine that all events have been willed by God, usually with reference to the eventual fate of the individual soul. Explanations of predestination often seek to address the "paradox of free will", whereby God's omniscience seems incompatible with human free will.

Predestination - Wikipedia

Predestination, in Christianity, the doctrine that God has eternally chosen those whom he intends to save. In modern usage, predestination is distinct from both determinism and fatalism and is subject to the free decision of the human moral will, but the doctrine also teaches that salvation is entirely due to the eternal decree of God.

Predestine | Definition of Predestine by Merriam-Webster

The predestined certainty of God's gracious work in Christ was not meant to perplex men, but to encourage and reassure all who trust in His grace. In Romans 9:14-25, the absolute sovereignty of God is put in a form whereby election is made to originate in the divine will apart from all human merit, whether actual or foreseen. But from this assertion of God's free supremacy we can derive no ...

This book is the revelation of the creation of God in me. It's the truth of who I am. This book is about the things I saw as important before knowing my God-given destiny. Predestined One illustrates the power to remove opposing forces against the believer. There is power in learning, whereas there is no power in thinking there is nothing one has not been taught. We are all unique and individually made up by God the creator. And this book exemplifies the spiritual overcoming power of who God created me to be. We all have our individual gifts that God has placed in us as he wills, and with prayer, along with a search within yourself, your gift will be revealed to you. And with that revelation you can begin to act in your gift as a part of the making up of the body of Christ as a whole, as we all play a part. Allow Predestined One, Right Is Not Wrong and Wrong Is Not Right to put you on the path to your destiny in Christ, as well as make right decisions according to truth. It will change your walk in life, and it will place you on the path of victorious living. Roman's 8:29 (AMP) 29 For those whom He foreknew [and loved and chose beforehand], He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son [and ultimately share in His complete sanctification], so that He would be the firstborn [the most beloved and honored] among many believers.

If the Bible teaches that the Lord is sovereign over all and that mankind is naturally hostile towards God, then it stands to reason that we would never choose the Lord apart from the Holy Spirit working within us to change our hearts. Proceeding from this logical starting point of God's sovereignty and man's depravity, it necessarily follows that God must save His people from their sins, those that are otherwise helpless and in a desperate state. No theological system like Reformed theology allows one to remain consistent when carrying out one's beliefs to the ultimate conclusions as the doctrines of God's sovereignty and grace

This is the most common reactive thought among those who have ever taken the time to contemplate their existence according to the typical understanding of the relationship between the all-knowing God and his intentional, predestined creation, Man. For centuries unnecessary confusion and conflict has run rampant throughout the Church concerning the terms predestined, elected, and chosen. It is extremely important that each Believer obtains an accurate understanding of their correct meaning and application. The Christian faith and the very character of God are literally defined by these terms. Do not believe the lie that these terms are too difficult to understand. God wants the issue of predestination settled in every Believer's mind and in the Church. Predestined - Elected - Chosen, a ten-year journey and God-appointed mission in Michael's life, will accomplish just that. In Predestined - Elected - Chosen you will discover that God has predestined, elected, and chosen... - 'How' eternal salvation would be made available; that is, by grace, through faith in Jesus Christ, not of works - 'What' He expects of every Believer who receives Jesus Christ as their Savior; that is, a righteous, sanctified life - 'Purposes' for individuals and entire people groups Did God also predestine, elect, and choose 'who' will and 'who' will not receive eternal salvation? Answering this question is the book's focus. In Predestined - Elected - Chosen Michael takes on 102 'challenges.' These challenges are arguments and Scripture references used by both the Electionist camp (those who support the predestined eternal future view) and the Free-Will camp to support their respective views. No stone is left unturned as these challenges are contested against the scrutiny of thorough Biblical evaluation. The book format makes for an easy read, setup to function as a quick reference guide concerning any Scripture which sheds light on this critical subject. Michael's writing style is also easy to follow, absent of the complicated terms and confusing language typically used by theologians to address this issue. This is such an important issue. The doctrine of Election and the Free-Will view are literally two mutually exclusive religions. Getting this matter settled in the Church is right up there in importance with our understanding that 'salvation is by grace, through faith, not of works.' It is a non-negotiable of the Christian faith. Although theologians and laymen alike have been debating this issue for centuries, Michael has been able to successfully and concisely settle this centuries-old debate once and for all. He has been able to clearly demonstrate which view is in harmony with the Gospel of Jesus Christ found in the Bible. Predestined - Elected - Chosen is a must-read for every Believer. Getting a clear understanding of these terms is absolutely essential to ensure that you are truly 'thoroughly furnished unto all good works' by 'rightly dividing the word of truth' concerning this important matter. It is God's will for you to get this matter settled. God is not hiding the truth from anyone. The effectiveness of the Church to disciple its members and to reach the Unsaved for Jesus Christ depends upon it. Your understanding of the very attributes and character of God depends upon it.
