As the skin fell from my bones ... A hundred million years went by. My bones turned into stone. A fossilremnant I became, Some bones locked in the land, And there I stayed till I was freed And cleaned by human hands. My bones were put together To make a fine display, And you can come to look at me Almost every day. I was an ancient dinosaur,

But research into our origins and evolution has come a long way. Starting with the first discovery of a fossil suggesting that a different sort of human once lived on this planet—it was a Neanderthal skull, unearthed in a mine in Germany's Neander Valley in 1856—our species' genealogy was inferred from stones and bones.
